mc 378,73058 m592: 1977 c.1 Good morning yesterday, You wake up and time has slipped away, And suddenly it's hard to find The memories you left behind, remember. Do you remember The laughter and the tears, The shadows of misty yesteryears? The good times and the bad you've seen And all the others in between, remember. Do you remember the times of your life? Reach back for the joy and the sorrow, Put them away in your mind, For mem'ries are time that you borrow To spend when you get to tomorrow. Here comes the setting sun, The seasons are passing one by one So gather moments while you may, Collect the dreams you dream today, remember. Will you remember the times of your life?

The 1976 soccer team, which was coached by Mason Sykes, played excellent defense, but was unable to win close games. The team lost four games by one goal and ended with a 2-10-1 mark. Highlights of the season included a 5-1 homecoming victory over Averett College and a 4-0 win over Pembroke State in the final match.

Karl Molnar and Mike Smith, the squad's only seniors, both closed out their four-year careers at Methodist. Sophomore defender Bruce Fritz, one of the team's co-captains, was selected Most Valuable Player by his teammates. Center halfback Gary Hall, also a sophomore and co-captain, was elected to the All-Dixie Conference First Team by vote of the league's eight coaches. No Monarchs were picked for the Second Team, but Fritz, Molnar, and freshmen defenders Hurley Davis, Paul LeCroy and Alan Whitshire were given Honorable Mention in the selections. Molnar, Hall and Whitshire were also picked for the Pembroke State Classic All-Star Team.

With a number of potentially outstanding underclassmen returning, the 1977 squad should be able to capture a lot more matches and challenge for the Dixie Conference championship.

The 1976 cross country team placed second in the Dixie Conference Tournament for the third straight season. Coach Bruce Shelley got outstanding effort from his runners, including Methodist's first female runner, Barbara Grob.

Sophomore Ricky Livingston placed first in several meets and was the conference's individual champion. He and Larry Robinson were selected for the All-Dixie Cross Country Team. Livingston was named as the team's MVP and Robinson won the Outstanding Senior Award.

The volleyball team, under the direction of Mary Jane Hunley, finished the season with an overall record of 15-12. The team represented the college well as it won three matches in the North Carolina AIAW Tournament before being eliminated by UNC-Wilmington. Lois McPherson was chosen as the team's MVP.

The girls showed great improvement since the 1975 team had finished with a 3-10 record. With no seniors graduating from this season's team, great things are expected for some time to come.

Head coach Joe Miller's second year at the helm of the varsity basketball program proved to be an exciting experience. The team had a sensational season, finishing with an 18-8 overall record. The Monarchs dominated regular season play in the Dixie Conference and finished well ahead of the pack with a 12-1 mark. The squad also swept three easy wins in succession from Averett College, UNCG, and Greensboro College to win the league tournament. The team moved on to win their opening game in the NCAA, Division III South Atlantic Regional over Glassboro State University: however, William Paterson College eliminated the Monarchs by a two-point margin in the finals.

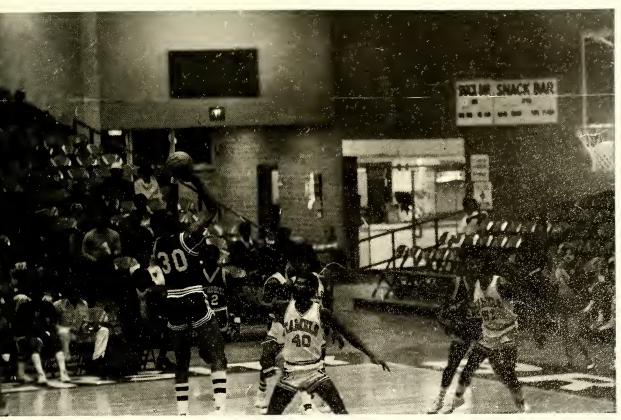

Senior center Gary Porter, senior forward James McRae, sophomore guard Dewayne Freeman, and sophomore forward Clarence Wiggins all averaged in double figures for the team. Junior forward Harold Johnson came off the bench to spark the team's offense in several contests, especially the home win over Greensboro College. Porter, McRae, and Wiggins also grabbed numerous rebounds. Guards Gary Mattocks and Audwin Pellom, both juniors, proved to be versatile performers, also. But, the real key to the team's success was defense, a tight man-to-man defense that challenged opponents to find good shots and maintain possession of the basketball.

The team had many award winners over the course of the season. Joe Miller was chosen Dixie Conference Basketball Coach of the Year by his collegues. Gary Porter was selected as the team's MVP; Dewayne Freeman was chosen as the Outstanding Defensive Player. Both of those players were picked for the All-Conference First Basketball Team. James McRae won a berth on the Second Team. Four Monarchs. McRae, Porter, Freeman, and Wiggins were selected for the five-man Dixie Conference All-Tournament Team — a rare feat. Porter was also the MVP of that tournament and he was to later make the South Atlantic Regional All-Tournament Team.

Seniors Larry Robinson, James McRae, and Gary Porter will be missed in 1977-78. But, with a hard-working man like Coach Miller around and several outstanding players returning, our gym is again likely to be the site of no varsity basketball loses in 1977-78, as it was in 1976-77.

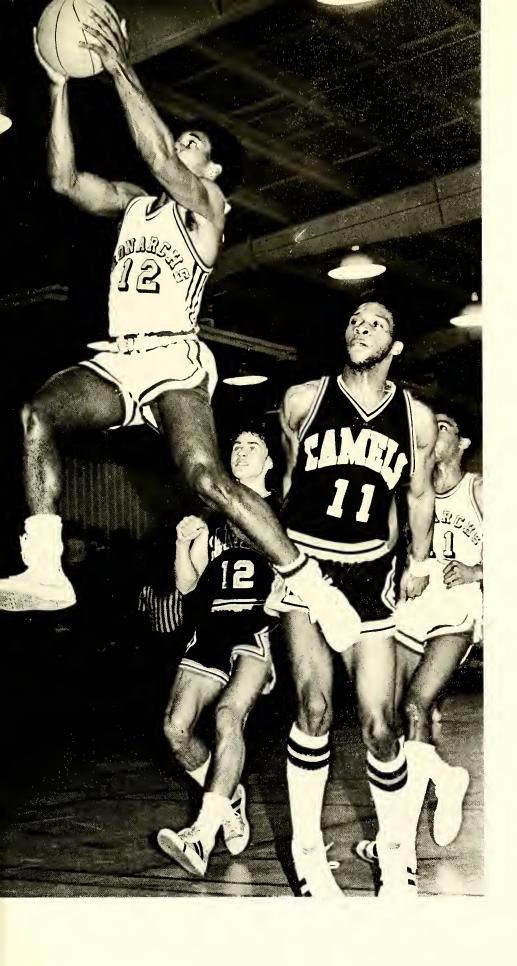

Under the direction of Coach Mason Sykes, the 1976-77 women's basketball team had a banner season. The team finished with a 14-4 mark, losing those four games by a total of five points. The team also won the district NCAIAW championship with a 7-1 record. An overtime loss to Atlantic Christian College in the first round of the NCAIAW, Division II Tournament ended the season on a sour note. However, the three sophomores and seven freshmen that comprised the ten-woman 1976-77 team can be proud of the outstanding reputation that the program has received in a short three-year life span.

Freshman point guard Priscilla Warren not only ran the team's highscoring offense, but also averaged upwards of 18 points per game. Sophomores Anita Graves and Jeannie Edwards, and freshman Barbara Buie all averaged in double figures and were steady rebounders. Center Freda Crawford was a dominant inside force for the team and substitutes Puddin Miles, Cindy Simpkins, Janet Doss, Vicki Weaver, and Di Reichelderfer each made significant contributions. Anita Graves' all-around consistent play won her the team's MVP award.

It goes without saying that the future of women's basketball at Methodist College is in good hands with such youthful talent on campus. Even greater records should be within reach in the seasons to come.

In the spring of 1977, great strides were taken by Coach Joe Miller to upgrade the Methodist College track program. Constant practice and dedication yielded fine results. The team faced tough competition from Campbell College, Lynchburg College, St. Andrews College, and other schools during the regular season. The team defeated Christopher Newport College in a dual meet and had fine showings in several triangular meets.

The season was climaxed by a second place finish in the 1977 Dixie Conference Track and Field Championships. The Monarch's 61 points were narrowly behind St. Andrew's 68 points. Christopher Newport and Averett College were well back in the meet with 32 and 19 points, respectively. Ricky Livingston, a participant in the 1977 Boston Marathon, was the conference champion in the 880-yard run, mile run, and three mile run. Freshman Don Patterson won the discus throw. Ronnie Sutton was the runnerup in the 100-yard, and 220-yard dashes; George Fowler was the runnerup in the 440-yard run and Donnell Moore placed right behind Livingston in the three distance events. Jim Smith, Paul LeCroy, and several others contributed to the final team tally.

The team relied heavily on cross country men, Livingston, Moore, Richard Pearce, Jakie Snapp, and Jack Jones, to give the team high point accumulations in the distance events. Jim Smith performed well in the javelin throw, discus throw, shot put, and pole vault. Patterson, Fowler, and Sutton were versatile performers, also. Livingston was named the team's MVP at the spring athletic banquet for acquiring the most points for the team during competition.

Coach Miller and his 1978 team should have a good chance to win the Dixie title. This season's squad was young and the anticipated completion of the college's new track and field facility should produce another dominant athletic team on campus.

This year's women's tennis team, under the direction of Coach Gene Clayton, was an excellent representative of the college. During the split season the women achieved an undefeated 14-0 record in dual matches. They also won the First Annual Eastern Collegiate Women's Invitational in the fall and finished second to Peace College in the North Carolina Association of Intercollegiate Athletics for Women (NCAIAW), Division II Tournament in the spring.

The fall season saw the Monarchs pull out close wins against tough competition from High Point College, East Carolina, and other fine teams. The women won the First Annual Eastern Collegiate Women's Invitational over a tough eight-team field with a total of 41 points. In that tournament Kinta Otterman was runnerup to Atlantic Christian's Joan Adams in the No. 1 singles bracket. Methodist tournament champions included Turtle Marshall at No. 4 singles, Delphine Badzinski at No. 6 singles, and Otterman and Jeannie Edwards at No. 2 doubles. Kay Crawford and Elaine Lewis had outstanding seasons at No. 2 and No. 3 singles, respectively.

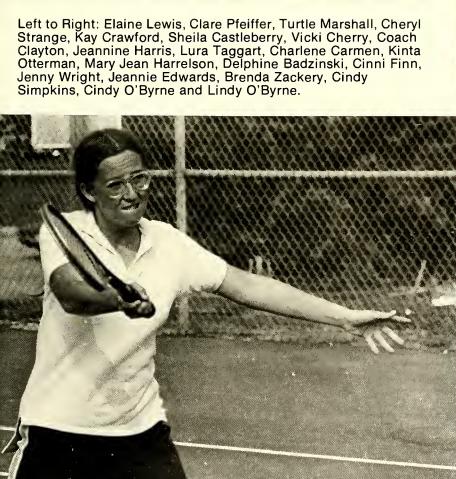

The spring season saw the team dominate all competition in dual matches. The team finished second to Peace College in the seventeen-team field NCAIAW, Division II Tournament with 23 points. Cinni Finn was the state tournament champion at No. 6 singles and the duo of Edwards-Badzinski were champions at No. 3 doubles. Kay Crawford, Badzinski, and Edwards were all finalists in their respective flights.

With no seniors graduating from the squad, Coach Clayton feels that his women should remain the number one four-year small college team in the state for some time to come on the basis of outstanding depth.

The 1976-77 golf team was successful in defending their Dixie Conference Championship in the spring. Coach Bob Turner was able to get maximum effort from his golfers.

Tommy Benton, a December graduate, was the team leader and award winner as MVP of the fall season. The squad played in three fall tournaments, all of which had between ten and twenty teams participating. The team finished in the middle of the pack at Elon and Campbell, but placed fourth in the Second Annual Methodist College Collegiate Open. Benton finished second, fourth, and second, respectively, in those events. His two-day score of 145 was topped only by Pembroke State All-American Willis Nance's 143 in the latter event.

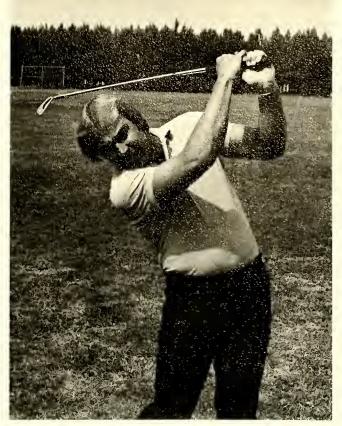

The squad continued to be impressive against stiff competition in the spring. The Monarchs ran away from the eight-team field at the conference tournament at the Ft. Bragg Officers' Club course and defended their title by a whopping 28 strokes. Sophomore Van Fletcher's 151 earned him the individual league title. Sophomore Jack McCormic and freshman Alan Billings finished third and fifth, respectively, in the tournament. Seniors Marvin Rea and Winn Graham had fine tournaments, as well. Coach Turner was selected Dixie Conference Golf Coach of the Year for the second straight year. Fletcher was selected as the spring's MVP and Marvin Rea won the Outstanding Senior Award. Also, Fletcher, McCormic, and Billings made the six-man All-Dixie Conference Golf Team.

The 1977 tennis team placed fifth in both the Dixie Conference regular season schedule and annual tournament. Coach Mason Sykes had a fairly young, inexperienced squad that showed constant improvement. The Monarchs had a conference mark of 3-4, and overall record of 4-8. Highlights of the year were easy home wins over St. Andrews College and Averett College.

Senior Michael Stanfield, the team's leader and No. 1 singles player, played good tennis throughout the year against tough competition. Stanfield had an outstanding tournament, as he was a singles semifinalist, losing to top-seeded Greg Herpst of Greensboro College in a third-set tiebreaker. Stanfield and steady junior Dave Horne also were semifinalists in the No. 1 doubles bracket. The pair had a 3-3 regular season mark in league play. Junior Mitchell Davis and freshman Ray Heath were semifinalists at No. 5 and No. 6 singles, respectively, in the conference tournament. Both had regular season marks of 5-2 in the league. Sophomore Gary Hall and Heath accumulated an 8-5 record at No. 3 doubles, and were semifinalists, too, in the Dixie tournament.

The 1977 spring baseball season marked the close of an era in athletics at Methodist College. It was the last season that the Monarchs would play with Bruce Shelley, the man who started and constructed the program from scratch, as head coach. The team's effort and achievement this spring was a real tribute to the college, and to Shelley, himself. The Monarchs easily won their third conference championship in four years with an 11-1 mark. The overall record of 28-7 was the best ever by a Methodist College baseball team. Coaches Harry Motes and Jerry Byrd were great assets to the team, as well.

The team batted .334 for the season and got great support from each individual at the plate. Junior second baseman Audwin Pellom averaged .398, followed closely by junior leftfielder Buddy Gooch and freshman third baseman Steve Neal, each at .370. David Roller, Mike Stinson, Steve Hodges, captain Butch Stegal, and Ronnie Reese hit for averages upwards of .300, as well, and performed excellently in the field. Roller's leadership as the Monarchs' catcher and Gooch's consistent hitting won each of them a share of the team's MVP award.

All-American righthander Earl Bunn was the ace of the pitching staff and finished the season with a 13-4 record. That mark earned him the distinction of being the winningest pitcher in NCAA, Division III. Bunn was also selected for the squad's Outstanding Senior Award. Sophomore hurler Ronnie Reese finished up strong with a 5-2 record on the mound.

The team will miss Coach Shelley and seniors Bunn, Roller, and Stegal in the future; but, optimism for further baseball success here is high.

The 1977 softball team represented Methodist College well and achieved an overall record of 15-9. First-year coach Regina Daniel developed an outstanding hitting squad over the course of the season. The women worked hard, even though tough defeats in the NCAIAW, Division II Tournament and Methodist College Softball Invitational blemished the record.

The squad had numerous talented players. Junior pitcher Susan Ipock was picked as the team's MVP for the third consecutive year. Joan Carter was the Monarchs' leader in homers with eleven blasts. Sheila Castleberry, Myra Gore, and Puddin Miles were also solid hitters.

Consistent player development should yield positive results for upcoming softball seasons.

Left to Right; Males: Chris Yow, John Capps, Jerry Lewis, Scott Perry and Dave Waddell. Females: Sara Young, Cindy Moore, Rose Brantley, Karen Jones, Sandra Miller, Wanda Martinez and Gail Roberts.

The 1976-77 cheerleaders were very inspirational to crowds at both soccer and basketball games. Director Tommy Yow instituted two different cheerleading groups this year, the gold squad and the green squad. Senior Sandra Miller was captain of the gold squad and junior Sara Young served as the group's co-captain. Sandra was selected for the Outstanding Cheerleader Award at the spring athletic banquet, and she and Gail Roberts won special awards as the squad's senior members. Both squad's performed very well at games and both received many compliments.

WHO'S WHO AMONG STUDENTS IN

A native of Baltimore, Maryland, Sheldon James (Jim) Bathurst entered Methodist College as a junior. He is an economics-business administration major with a sociology minor. During his two years at Methodist, Jim has served as the first president of the North Carolina Mu chapter of Alpha Chi, president of the Business Club, and junior class marshal. Named to the President's List for several semesters, he is also a Methodist College Scholar. Upon graduation, Jim will return to his duties as a captain with the Marine Corps.

Frank Guy Braley has been very active in civic, religious, and academic activities in his four years at Methodist College. He has been a four year member of the Methodist College Chorus, History and Political Science Club, Hay Street Methodist Church Choir, Dean's List, and Presidential Scholar. In his four years he has remained active in campus politics and has chaired many state and national campaigns on the campus. Whenever there was a straw election, he had something to do with it - making sure his candidate would win (100% average of wins). He has been Chief Justice of the High Court, Justice of the High Court, co-chairperson to the Center for the Study of the Presidency, Vice president of the chorus, Treasurer of the chorus and Cumberland Hall, Sophomore Class Marshall, Methodist College Scholar, member of Alpha Chi and Pi Gamma Mu, two year winner of the Grace Tobler Award as the outstanding political science student of the year, three year winner for the best monster make-up at the Halloween Dance, Hall Counselor, and silent film coordinator. If he leaves anything to M.C., he leaves a restructured court system to serve the needs of the college community for years to come.

AMERICAN UNIVERSITIES & COLLEGES

An art education major from Haddonfield, New Jersey, Gale Cannon has been active in a wide variety of campus activities. She has held many offices in Garber Hall, including president. Also, she held the office of president of the Green and Gold Masque Keys and was in the cast of several plays sponsored by the club. For the past three years she has been secretary of the Senate and very active in the S.G.A. Gale has been involved in the Student Education Association, the Art Club, and the Monarch Club. She was also a Crescent Girl to Lambda Chi Alpha and editor of academics for the Carillon. Gale has been named to the Dean's List several semesters, and considers her main interests to be in the area of art, in which she has won several honors and awards. Gale plans to teach art upon graduation from Methodist.

Kenneth Daniel has been very active during his four years at Methodist College. He is a religion major with a minor in art and a vocational interest in the ministry. Kenneth's greatest efforts have been directed toward the Student Government Association, where he has served on the Senate Constitution Committee, as a delegate to the House at the N.C.S.L. convention, as a senator, as president of the S.G.A. 13th senate, vice-president his junior year and president his senior year of the S.G.A. Aside from his devoted participation to all aspects of the S.G.A., Kenneth has been involved in many other activities including drama productions, music and art.

Kathy Ewing, a native of Durham, is an English major. Her minor is philosophy. She is a Dean's List student. Kathy served as co-editor of sMALL TALK spring semester her sophomore year, was editor-in-chief her junior year, and filled the position of editor at the end of her senior year. During her editorship of sMALL TALK, the newspaper received first class honor ratings in two national competitions for issues published in the fall semester of 1975. Tapestry, Methodist College's literary magazine, is another of Kathy's interests. Kathy was a staff member of Tapestry her sophomore year. Her junior year she was editor-of-design and was appointed editor-in-chief her senior year. Kathy plans to attend graduate school to obtain a masters in journalism.

John Anthony Gedeon, a native of Pittsburgh, Pa., came to Methodist College after receiving a conscientious objector discharge from the Army. Being a December graduate, he has completed a major in social work and a double minor of psychology and German. John has actively engaged in campus activities. His extracurricular activities include being the academics officer for Lambda Chi Alpha and chief photographer for Public Relations, sMALL TALK, and the Carillon. He has been a member of the Ethos Club, 1976 Runathon, cross country team, and Dean's List. He also enjoyed taking students on joy rides 3000 feet over the campus in a Cessna. John plans to attend graduate school in social work in the coming year.

Blanche Elizabeth (Winkie) Lee is a senior majoring in English. Her home being in Roanoke Rapids, North Carolina, Winkie has been involved in several clubs and organizations at Methodist College. Included among her activities are: being a four year member of the chorus, during which she served as vice-president, 1975-76 and president, 1976-77, a member of the Health and Fitness Club, functioning as its president, 1976-77; being a Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl for three years; participation in the Green and Gold Masque Keys, where her favorite accomplishment was adapting a Mark Twain short story for the stage; being on the school newspaper her freshman and sophomore years, serving as features editor one year; and working with the United Student Appeal on publicity 1974-75, and as Publicity Chairman, 1975-76. Academically, Winkie has frequently been on the Dean's List.

Vic Mansfield, a religion major and music minor from the beautiful city of Raleigh, has tried to be involved with Methodist College. Active in several organizations, Vic has been active on his own, too. Vic has served in the chorus as wardrobe co-chairperson for three years. Chorus has been an important part of his life at Methodist, and he has enjoyed it. Koinonia, our campus Christian fellowship, has been another important part of Vic's life at MC. Having been in several offices, he has worked closely in many of Koinonia's activities seeking to find the true fellowship which the name "koinonia" suggests. Active in the dorm, as food committee chairperson, in handbells, and in other things, Vic has tried to be involved with the school and the people that mean so much to him.

Betty Jo Mitchell, an elementary teacher education major from Fayetteville, has been actively involved in a number of extracurricular activities during her four years at Methodist College. She has been a member of the College Chorus, Student Union Board, Lambda Chi Alpha Crescent Girl, 1975-76 Homecoming Court, S.E.A., and Dean's List. She has served as Hall Counselor and president of Garber Hall. As a charter member of Alpha Xi Delta fraternity her freshman year, this is where she feels her greatest and fondest efforts have been directed. In the fraternity she has served as Quill Chairman, Pledge Trainer and Vice President.

Kay Mitchell is an elementary teacher education major from Fayetteville and hopes to teach kindergarten in this area next year. She came to Methodist in the fall of 1974 with the aid of a Presidential Scholarship. That fall Kay served as Parliamentarian for the S.G.A. Senate and also as a representative to the Registration Committee. It was part of her duties as Parliamentarian to also serve as Chairperson to the Constitution Committee. Other positions Kay has filled as a student at Methodist are as follows: student representative to the Academic Affairs Committee and student representative to the Elementary Education Committee for the Self-Study.

Jane Peterson, an elementary teacher education major who calls Fayetteville home, came to Methodist two years ago as a transfer student from East Carolina University. Since that time, Jane has served as editor of sMALL TALK, historian of Alpha Chi and secretary of Pi Gamma Mu. She served on Weaver Hall's Judicial Board during her senior year and has been named to both the Dean's and President's List. Jane has worked as a student assistant in Public Relations for two years and plans a career in teaching.

With a major in history, Gary Rigsbee plans to become a high school social studies teacher. Gary has been on the Dean's List or President's List continuously all four years that he has been at Methodist College. He has also served as graduation Marshal or Alternate Marshal for three consecutive years. Among Gary's other extracurricular activities and honors are Literary Award winner, History and Political Science Club, and charter membership in both Pi Gamma Mu and Alpha Chi.

Mary Ann Sopelak, a Fayetteville native, is a senior majoring in elementary teacher education. During her five semesters at Methodist, she has made the President's List for three consecutive semesters, been awarded the President's Scholarship for the academic year 1976-77, and also served as an Alternate Junior Marshal for the May, 1976, graduation. She has been a member of the Student Education Association and is a charter member of the local North Carolina Mu Chapter of Alpha Chi. Mary has a ten-year-old daughter, Dawn.

A native of Hillsborough, Yvonne Walker is an intermediate education major. During her four years at Methodist, she was a member of the Green and Gold Masque Keys, served as treasurer of the Student Education Association, treasurer and president of Koinonia, and senior class editor of the 1977 Carillon. During her freshman and sophomore years she was an Alternate Marshal for graduation exercises, and as a senior she received a Presidential Scholarship. She was also a charter member of Epsilon Mu Chapter of Kappa Delta sorority, as well as treasurer of the sorority. She was also nominated for membership in Alpha Chi and has been a Dean's List and President's List student.

Debra Underwood is an elementary teacher education major from Havelock. Her campus activities have included being president, secretary, and social chairman of Alpha Xi Delta fraternity; secretary of the Greek Council; secretary, treasurer, and hall counselor of Garber Hall; and president of the Student Education Association. Debbie has been a member of Koinonia and the President's Council, and has been on the Dean's List

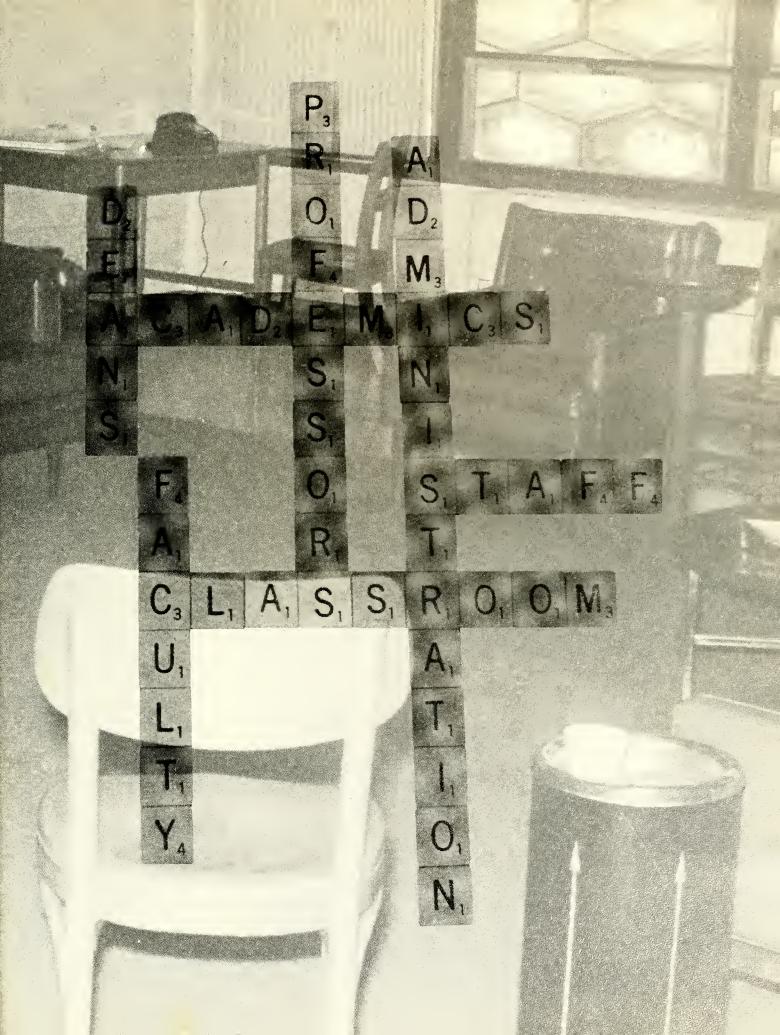

Wanda Willett, a native of Sanford, majored in elementary teacher education. A transfer student from Louisburg, Wanda was president of Phi Theta Kappa, and recipient of the Methodist Scholarship and Spanish Award. At Methodist, she has been active in the Handbells, JV cheerleaders, S.E.A., and sMALL TALK. She served as vice president of Alpha Chi, and as Hall Counselor and Judicial Board member of Weaver Hall. A work-study student, Wanda is the first recipient of the Blackburn Scholarship. She teaches the Junior Class and is planist at Lemon Springs United Methodist Church.

Virginia Williams, from Fayetteville, has been active in a wide variety of campus organizations. Majoring in mathematics, with a minor in psychology, Virginia has been an active chorus member since her freshman year, serving as secretary her senior year. She is a member of the Alpha Xi Delta fraternity and was elected as marshal her senior year. Virginia was creations editor of the 1976 Carillon and Editor-in-Chief of the 1977 edition. She was student representative to the Student-Faculty Library Committee and the Judicial Board Committee. She has been the publicity chairman for Koinonia and has worked in the library as a student assistant for three years. In addition to her many campus activities Virginia has been a Dean's List student for four years. Also, for her scholastic achievement she was the 1976-1977 fall semester recipient of the Alpha Xi Delta fraternity diamond Recognition Quill.

Goin' to keep on going down the road. Goin' to hold my head up high. Goin' to follow where the pathway leads 'Till it reaches to the sky. Goin' to face each joy and sorrow That I chance to meet along the way. Goin' to travel out my future day by day. . . . Oh I don't know what's ahead of me At the coming of the dawn, But I welcome each tomorrow and I keep a movin' on. A cup full of promise A head full of dreams And I know the sun is shining Though the clouds may try to hide its beams. So I just keep going, keep on traveling, Hold my head up high, And I follow the path 'till it reaches the sky. But I hope that where I travel They will say of me one day That it somehow made a difference That I passed this way.
